

Health Equity and Neighborhoods

Where you live can have a direct effect on health status, chronic conditions, health behaviors and more.

How does a neighborhood affect your health?

Safe Places to Exercise

Access to Healthy Food

Crime and violence rates

Air Pollution and Home Hazards

Quality of Schools

Average Life Expectancy for a baby born in New Orleans can vary by as much as

25 Years

across neighborhoods just a few miles

apart.*

The Health Equity Institute
1600 Holloway Avenue, HSS 359
San Francisco, CA 94132
P: 415-405-2540
hei@sfsu.edu

 HEALTH EQUITY INSTITUTE
for Research, Practice & Policy

SAN FRANCISCO
STATE UNIVERSITY

Find us on:

*<http://www.rwjf.org/en/about-rwjf/newsroom/features-and-articles/Commission/resources/city-maps.html>